Department of Music

The Department of Music offers the following: Master of Music Degree, Graduate Certificate in Keyboard Pedagogy, Graduate Certificate in Instrumental Performance, Graduate Certificate in Voice Pedagogy.

Master of Music Degree

The Master of Music degree program in the Department of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

The Master of Music degree offers the opportunity for qualified students to pursue advanced study in music with an emphasis in Instrumental or Choral Conducting, Vocal or Instrumental Performance, Music Education, or Piano Pedagogy and Performance or Vocal Pedagogy and Performance. The Master of Music degree is designed to develop and foster high achievement in performance and teaching; to prepare the student for a career as a performer, conductor, or educator; or to serve as a basis for pursuing doctoral studies in music.

Program Admission Requirements

In addition to satisfying the University-wide admission requirements, applicants are expected to hold the Bachelor of Music degree or Bachelor of Music Education degree with a major in their intended area of graduate emphasis or the equivalent, submit three recommendations from established professionals commenting on the appropriate area of graduate study in music for the applicant, complete a statement of intent concerning graduate school, and successfully complete one of the following:

Choral Conducting

Audition in person or provide a recent video (DVD or private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in a rehearsal or performance situation.

Instrumental Conducting

Audition in person or provide a recent video (DVD or private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in a rehearsal or performance situation.

Music Education

Submit a digital video of classroom teaching (DVD or private YouTube link), documentation of teaching experience (résumé or curriculum vita), and a self-composed short essay (1-2 pages) that describes the reasons for becoming a teacher, commitment to music education, and future career goals.

Vocal Pedagogy and Performance

Audition in person (or with acceptable justification approved by the auditioning committee) provide a recent high quality DVD or private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in the proposed pedagogy and performance medium.

Placement Examination

Students in all emphases are required to take placement examinations in music theory, aural skills, and music history and, where appropriate, complete the corresponding review classes before taking graduate topics courses in music history and music theory.

Students in the vocal performance and vocal pedagogy and performance emphases are required to take a vocal pedagogy placement examination and, where appropriate, complete a vocal pedagogy review class before enrolling in the pedagogy of musical performance course.

Students in the vocal performance, vocal pedagogy and performance, and choral conducting emphases are required to take diagnostic examinations in French, German, Italian, and English lyric diction. If the student is found deficient in any one of the languages, the appropriate course(s) will be required. The student’s advisor will counsel the student in correcting deficiencies and selecting courses for the student’s degree program.

Placement examinations are administered on official audition days.

Degree Requirements

The minimum number of semester credit hours required for this degree, exclusive of coursework or other study required to remove admission deficiencies, is 31 to 36 hours depending on the emphasis. Courses in which a grade of “C” or lower is earned are not applicable toward coursework for the Master of Music degree.
