STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Student Conduct and Community Standards (SCCS) is housed in the Office of Student Life, located in Student Union, room 2.02.18 (above the bookstore). SCCS promotes appropriate standards of behavior for the UTSA community, in part by investigating alleged violations of the University’s Student Code of Conduct (http://catalog.utsa.edu/informationbulletin/appendices/studentcodeofconduct), and addressing these violations by holding students accountable while intentionally educating them regarding their choices. SCCS accomplishes this by truly listening to students and creating an environment where they feel heard. SCCS is a place where students can discuss violations of University rules, learn about University expectations, and report possible violations. All safety concerns should be reported to the UTSA Police Department (http://www.utsa.edu/utsapd). Visit the SCCS website (http://www.utsa.edu/studentlife/conduct) for further information.

General Provisions

Sec. 101. Introduction

By enrolling at The University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA), a student neither loses the rights nor escapes the responsibilities of citizenship. All students are expected to obey federal, state, and local laws; the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Regents (http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules) of The University of Texas System; the rules and regulations of UTSA (http://utsa.edu/policies); and directives issued by an administrative official in the course of their duties. A student who enrolls at the University is charged with the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the University’s function as an educational institution; consequently, conduct which interferes with the use or utilization of University facilities by other persons may be sanctioned regardless of whether such conduct is specifically proscribed by the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct.

4. A student who receives a period of suspension as a disciplinary sanction is subject to further disciplinary action for prohibited conduct that takes place during the period of suspension.

Sec. 203. Scholastic Dishonesty

1. Student Conduct and Community Standards or a faculty member may initiate disciplinary proceedings against any student for an alleged potential infraction involving scholastic dishonesty.

2. “Scholastic Dishonesty” is any form of cheating or plagiarism that violates the Student Code of Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty or academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to submission of essentially the same written assignment for two [2] courses without the prior permission of the instructor, and providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment), or the attempt to commit such an act.

3. “Cheating” is any form of dishonesty where a student attempts to give the appearance of a level of knowledge or skill the student has not obtained. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:
   a. copying from another person’s or another student’s work during an examination, test, or while completing an assignment;
   b. using unauthorized assistance, material, or study aids during an examination, quiz, or other academic work;
   c. failing to make any effort to prevent another from using unauthorized assistance, material, or study aids during an examination, quiz, or other academic work;
   d. failing to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test;
   e. using and/or possessing materials during a test which are not authorized by the person giving the test, such as class notes or specifically designed “crib notes.” The presence of textbooks constitutes a violation only if the person administering the test has specifically prohibited them;
   f. using, buying, coercing, offering money or other valuable things, either for personal use, the free use of others, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of an unadministered test, any completed test, test key, homework solution or assignment, computer program, or other graded class material without expressed authority from the person or their designee approved by the University to administer the course;
   g. collaborating with, allowing someone to copy from one’s work, or seeking aid from another student during a test or other assignment without expressed authorization from the person or their designee approved by the University to administer the course;
   h. discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination at a later time or date;
   i. divulging the contents of an examination for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another when the instructor has designated the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or not to be returned to students;
   j. substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for one’s self to take a course, or a test, or to complete a course-related assignment;
   k. paying or offering money or other valuable thing to, or coercing another person to obtain an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or information about an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program;
   l. falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit;
   m. taking, keeping, misplacing, or damaging the property of the University or of another, if the student knows or reasonably should know an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct;

n. misrepresenting facts, including providing false grades or résumés, for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit or injuring another student academically or financially;
   o. attempting to commit or assisting with the commission or attempted commission of any of the foregoing listed violations

4. “Plagiarism” is a form of academic dishonesty and intellectual theft that violates long-held and widely-recognized principles of academic integrity including, but not limited to the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the submission of said work as one’s own academic work offered for credit. Plagiarism also includes, but is not limited to:
   a. failing to credit sources in a work in order to pass it off as one’s own work;
   b. having someone else complete assigned work and then passing it off as one’s own;
   c. plagiarism may occur with respect to unpublished as well as published material; this includes the act of copying another student’s work or other unpublished document and submitting it as one’s own individual work without proper attribution;
   d. Intentional Plagiarism is the deliberate act of representing the words, ideas, or data of another as one’s own without providing proper attribution to the author through quotation, reference, or footnote;
   e. Inadvertent Plagiarism involves the inappropriate, but not deliberate use of another’s words, ideas, or data without appropriate attribution, failure to follow established rules for documenting sources, or from being insufficiently careful in research and writing;
   f. Paraphrased Plagiarism involves paraphrasing without acknowledgment of ideas taken from another that the reader might mistake for one’s own;
   g. Plagiarism Mosaic involves the borrowing of words, ideas, or data from an original source and blending this original material with one’s own without acknowledging the source; and
   h. Insufficient Acknowledgment involves the partial or incomplete attribution of words, ideas, or data from an original source.

5. “Collusion” includes, but is not limited to the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty.

6. “Falsifying academic records” includes, but is not limited to the altering or assisting in the altering of any official record of the University or the System, the submission of false information, or the omission of requested information required for or related to any academic record of the University or the System. Academic records include, but are not limited to applications for admission, the awarding of a degree, grade reports, test papers, registration materials, grade change forms, and reporting forms used by the Registrar. A former student who engages in such conduct is subject to a bar against readmission, revocation of a degree, and withdrawal of a diploma.

Disciplinary Sanctions
Sec. 301. Authorized Disciplinary Sanctions

Any one or more of the actions listed below may be imposed upon a student who has engaged in conduct which violates a rule, regulation, or administrative order of the University, a provision of the Regents’ Rules of the System, or a federal, state, or local law. Sanctions include but are not limited to prohibited conduct taking place in System-sponsored, off-campus activities such as field trips, internships, rotations or clinical assignments, regardless of whether civil or criminal penalties are also imposed for such conduct. The disciplinary actions assessed in a particular case will be dependent upon the nature of the conduct involved, the circumstances and conditions which existed at the time the student engaged in such conduct, and the results which followed as a natural consequence of such conduct.

1. Disciplinary warning;
2. Disciplinary probation;
3. Withholding grades, official transcript, or degree;
4. Bar against readmission, or drop from current enrollment and bar against readmission;
5. Restitution or reimbursement for damage to or misappropriation of institutional or System property;
6. Suspension of rights and privileges, including participation in athletic or extracurricular activities;
7. Failing grade for an examination or assignment or for a course, and/or cancellation of all or any portion of prior course credit;
8. Suspension from the institution for a specified period of time;
9. Expulsion (permanent separation from the institution);
10. Educational programs;
11. Revocation of degree, denial of degree, and/or withdrawal of diploma;
12. Deferral of sanction; or
13. Other sanction(s) as deemed appropriate under the circumstances.

Sec. 302. Explanation of Disciplinary Sanctions

1. Disciplinary warning is a written statement expressing disapproval of conduct.
2. Disciplinary probation indicates further violations may result in suspension or expulsion. Students who are assessed this sanction will be removed from behavioral probation automatically upon expiration of the probationary period.
3. Bar against readmission means a student may be prohibited from admission or enrollment at the University. This sanction is among those that may be imposed upon a student who fails to respond to a summons from the Dean of Students or their designee to discuss allegations that the student has engaged in conduct which may result in disciplinary action.
4. Restitution requires a student to reimburse the University for loss from, damage to, or unauthorized taking or use of property owned or leased by the University when the conduct of the student has caused or contributed to cause such loss. The student shall be advised of the amount of the loss and failure to make restitution by a specified date will result in suspension from the University until such time as restitution shall have been made.
5. Suspension of rights and privileges, including participation in official events or activities of the University, whether athletic or non-athletic. Students shall not join a registered student organization or participate in any meetings or activities of a registered student organization of which they may already be a member, and shall not be appointed or elected to or continue to function in any office or position within student government or the staff responsible for publication of a student newspaper. Students may also be barred from entering specified buildings, suspended or restricted from using particular facilities, transportation or other applicable items. This sanction may be enforced in part or in full.
6. A failing grade means an “F.” This sanction is among those that may be given when a student is found responsible for scholastic dishonesty in a course.
7. Suspension from the University for a specified period of time or until the student meets specified conditions. Students who are currently enrolled will be administratively withdrawn from all courses and refunds will not be issued. Suspension is noted on the academic transcript with the term “Disciplinary Suspension.” The notation can be removed upon the request of the student when all conditions of the suspension are met. Suspension prohibits the student on whom it is imposed, during the period of suspension, from entering the University campus without prior written approval of the Vice President, from being initiated into an honorary or service organization, and from receiving credit for academic work done during the period of the suspension. Suspension may also prohibit the student from being admitted to, enrolling at, or entering the campus of another component institution of the System without prior written approval of the chief student affairs officer of the institution at which the student wishes to be present. The Dean of Students or Hearing Officer may, however, permit the student to receive credit for academic work completed at another institution during the period of suspension, except when suspension is imposed for academic dishonesty. The Dean of Students or Hearing Officer may impose conditions related to the violation(s), and failure to meet such conditions or terms of the sanction will be considered an additional violation.
8. Expulsion from the University means a student will be dropped from current enrollment and a bar against readmission imposed. Expulsion is a permanent separation from the University and prohibits the student on whom it is imposed from entering the University campus without prior written approval of the Vice President. Expulsion may prohibit the student from being admitted to, enrolling at, or entering the campus of another component institution of the System without prior written approval of the chief student affairs officer of the institution at which the student wishes to be present. Educational programs are activities developed to expand the student’s understanding of the regulation or policy, and/or help the student learn more about themselves in relation to the policy or the violation.
9. Possession or distribution of drugs or alcohol: The University will impose at least the minimum disciplinary sanction of suspension for a specified period of time, or suspension of rights and privileges, or both, for conduct related to the use, possession, or distribution of drugs prohibited by state, federal, or local law. Other sanctions that may be imposed for conduct related to the unlawful use, possession, or distribution of drugs or alcohol include disciplinary probation, payment for damage to or misappropriation of property, suspension of rights and privileges, suspension for a specified period of time, expulsion, or such other sanction as may be deemed appropriate under the circumstances.
10. Debts to the University. Students who owe a debt to the University may be denied admission or readmission to the University and have their official transcripts, grades, diplomas, and degrees to which they would otherwise be entitled, withheld until the debt is paid. Students who write bad checks to the University for tuition and fees may have their registration canceled. Bad checks written to the University for other purposes may subject the student to legal and/or disciplinary action.
11. Deferral of sanction (e.g., probation, suspension) may be imposed on a student for whom the specific sanction deferred is appropriate, but for whom there are mitigating circumstances as determined by
Sec. 401. Investigation
Initiation of Disciplinary Charges

1. Upon receiving information that any student has allegedly violated Regents’ Rules, University regulations, or administrative rules, Student Conduct and Community Standards shall investigate the alleged violation. Student Conduct and Community Standards may dismiss the allegation as unfounded or summon the student. In cases where the alleged violation is sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, or sexual violence, the investigation will be conducted by the Office of Equal Opportunity Services (http://www.utsa.edu/eos) (EOS).

Please refer to Section 801 - 811 for the process regarding these incidents.

2. Any student may be summoned by written request from Student Conduct and Community Standards to meet for the purpose of investigating and/or discussing the allegations. The written request shall specify a place for the meeting and a time at least three (3) business days after the date of the written request if the request is sent regular mail, or at least two (2) business days after the date of the request if the request is sent by e-mail or hand delivered. The written request may be mailed to the address appearing in the Registrar’s records, e-mailed to the student at the e-mail address on record with the System institution, or may be hand-delivered to the student. If a student fails to appear without good cause, as determined by Student Conduct and Community Standards, the office may bar or cancel the student’s enrollment or otherwise alter the status of the student until the student complies with the summons, or the office may proceed to implement the disciplinary hearing procedures provided in Section 501, et seq. The refusal of a student to accept delivery of the notice, the failure to maintain a current address with the Registrar, or failure to read mail or e-mails shall not be good cause for the failure to respond to a summons.

3. The purpose of the meeting is to allow Student Conduct and Community Standards to discuss, for the purposes of investigating, the alleged incident/violation(s) with the student. At this meeting the student is given a copy of the Student Code of Conduct.

Sec. 402. Disposition of the Charges

The student must choose one of two decision-making approaches: (1) an administrative decision made by Student Conduct and Community Standards; or (2) a formal hearing.

1. When the student elects not to dispute the facts upon which the charges are based and agrees to the sanctions Student Conduct and Community Standards assesses, the student may execute a written waiver of the hearing procedures yet retain the right to appeal the decision of Student Conduct and Community Standards only on the issue of the sanction. This administrative disposition shall be final and there shall be no subsequent proceedings regarding the charges.

2. In any case where the accused student disputes the facts upon which the charges are based and elects the formal hearing as the decision-making approach, or refuses to execute a written waiver of a hearing, such charges shall be heard and determined by a fair and impartial Hearing Officer. A Hearing Officer will be chosen in accordance with the procedures of the institution.

Sec. 403. Interim Discipline

1. Pending a hearing or other disposition of the allegations against a student, if the continuing presence of the student is a potential danger to persons or property or a potential threat of disrupting the academic process or any activity authorized by the University, or in cases where actual or threatened violent conduct against a person is alleged, the dean of students may take such immediate interim disciplinary action as is appropriate to the circumstances. Appropriate actions include, but are not limited to, suspending the right of the student to be present on the campus (including to live in campus residence halls) and to attend classes, and otherwise altering the status of the student. Notwithstanding (B), listed below, the Dean of Students may withhold the issuance of an official transcript, grade, diploma, certificate, or degree to a student alleged to have violated a rule or regulation of the System or its institutions which would reasonably allow the imposition of such sanction. When interim disciplinary action has been taken, a hearing of the charges against the student will be held under the procedures specified in Section 501, et seq. A hearing following interim disciplinary action will generally be held within 10 business days after the interim disciplinary action was taken; however, at the discretion of the Dean of Students, the 10-day period may be extended for a period not to exceed an additional 10 business days.

2. As an alternative to a hearing of the charges before a Hearing Officer, the accused student may choose to have the charges disposed of in accordance with an administrative decision as set forth under procedures specified in Section 402.

Admission of the public shall be on a first-come basis.

5. No one shall be allowed to stand, sit on the floor, or bring additional seats into the hearing room. Designation of the hearing as a public hearing does not mean everyone who wishes to attend will be accommodated, and the refusal to admit persons after seating within the hearing room has been filled will not be a denial of a public hearing.

Sec. 508. Order of Proceedings
1. The hearing shall be called to order and shall proceed in the following manner:
   a. the Hearing Officer shall read the charges against the accused student, explain the rights of the parties, and entertain questions from either party concerning the procedures to be followed;

The Hearing Officer may ask questions of witnesses, the parties, or their counsel as may be deemed appropriate to ascertain the facts, or to aid the Hearing Officer in deciding upon the admissibility of evidence, the credibility of a witness, or the weight given to evidence admitted.

3. The Hearing Officer is entitled to have the advice and assistance of legal counsel from the Office of General Counsel of the System. Legal rules of evidence do not apply to Student Code of Conduct hearings.

4. Either party may object to the admission of evidence upon any ground they deem appropriate. The Hearing Officer shall rule upon such objections and either admit or exclude the objectionable evidence.

5. Evidence which is irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious will be excluded by the Hearing Officer upon objection of either party.

6. Documents, letters, writings, pictures, drawings, or objects a party plans to offer in evidence shall first be given to the Hearing Officer to be marked and identified as the exhibit of that party and listed by the Hearing Officer. After being marked and identified, each exhibit shall be shown to the opposing party. Unless the opposing party disputes the authenticity of the exhibit or has no knowledge with respect thereto, the exhibit may be offered without authentication; however, the exhibit may be objected to on grounds other than authenticity.

Sec. 513. Agreements of the Parties
Any of the provisions of this chapter relating to the time within which an act must be performed or the procedures for conducting the hearing may be altered by written agreement of the parties, duly signed and presented to the Hearing Officer for inclusion in the record of the case.

Sec. 514. Decision of the Hearing Officer
The Hearing Officer shall render and send to Student Conduct and Community Standards and the accused student a written decision that contains findings of fact and a conclusion as to whether the accused student is responsible for the violations as charged. Upon a finding of responsibility, the Hearing Officer shall assess a sanction or sanctions specified in Section 301 and/or Section 303. When an accused student is found responsible for the illegal use, possession, or sale of a drug or narcotic on campus, the assessment of a minimum sanction provided in Section 202 (A) (12) is required.

1. The University shall maintain a permanent, written disciplinary record for every student assessed a sanction of suspension, expulsion, denial or revocation of degree, and/or withdrawal of diploma. A record of scholastic dishonesty shall be maintained for at least five (5) years, unless the record is permanent in conjunction with the above-stated sanctions.

2. Disciplinary records required by law to be maintained for a certain period of time (e.g., Clery(http://clerycenter.org/jeanne-clery-act) violations) shall also be maintained for at least the time specified in the applicable law, unless the records are permanent in conjunction with the above-stated sanctions.

3. A disciplinary record shall reflect the nature of the charge, the disposition of the charge, the sanction assessed, and any other pertinent information.

The appeal must be stamped as received by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs no later than fourteen (14) business days after the appealing party has been notified of the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards. If the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards is sent by regular mail, the date the notice or decision is mailed initiates the fourteen (14) business day period for the appeal. Student Conduct and Community Standards may submit a response to the appeal which must be received by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs no later than five (5) business days after receipt of the appeal with a copy to the other party.

2. An appeal of the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards will be reviewed solely on the basis of the written argument of the student and Student Conduct and Community Standards.

3. The action of the Vice President shall be communicated in writing to the accused student and Student Conduct and Community Standards within thirty (30) business days after the appeal and related documents have been received.

3. The action of the Vice President shall be communicated in writing to the accused student and Student Conduct and Community Standards within thirty (30) business days after the appeal and related documents have been received.

4. The Vice President may approve, reject, or modify the decision in question, or may require the original hearing be reopened for the presentation of additional evidence and reconsideration of the decisions. It is provided, however, that upon a finding of responsibility in a case involving the illegal use, possession, and/or sale of a drug or narcotic on campus, the sanction may not be reduced below the sanctions prescribed by Section 202 (A) (12) of the Student Code of Conduct.

5. The decision of the Vice President is the final appellate review.

Sec. 704. Effect of Appeal Upon Disciplinary Action

1. An appeal of the decision of the Hearing Officer or of a sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards shall suspend the imposition of the prescribed disciplinary action pending final disposition of the appeal.

Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct

Sec. 801. Investigation

1. Upon receiving information that any student has allegedly violated the University's Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct in accordance with 9.24 (http://www.utsa.edu/hop/chapter9/9-24.html) in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (http://www.utsa.edu/hop) (HOP), Office of Equal Opportunity Services (https://www.utsa.edu/eos) (EOS) shall investigate the alleged violation and forward the EOS report to the Dean of Students.

2. EOS will provide a letter of finding to both the complainant(s) and respondent(s) providing the final findings of the EOS investigation.

3. If a “no contact” directive is given by EOS, the Dean, and/or the UTSA Police Department, it shall remain in effect until the final disposition of the case.

4. Complainant(s) and respondent(s) may request interim remedies and/or measures that may be provided before the end of the EOS investigation. See HOP 9.24. IX. Procedures, (D) (8) for interim remedies/measures.

Sec. 802. Disposition of HOP 9.24 Violation

1. After receiving the EOS report, the complainant(s) and respondent(s) have seven (7) business days from the date of the EOS report to submit comments regarding the report to the Dean.

2. The Dean will review the EOS report and any written comments submitted by the respondent(s) and/or complainant(s). After review, the Dean will provide a determination of action which includes:
   a. requesting further investigation by EOS into the complaint;
   b. dismissing the complaint if it is determined that there is no violation;
   c. proceeding with disciplinary charges if the findings are inconclusive and the Dean determines a hearing of the charges would be beneficial; or
   d. proceeding with disciplinary charges if the findings indicate the Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct was violated.

3. A decision that the policy was violated shall be made upon the record provided by the EOS investigator, any comments submitted by the complainant(s) or respondent(s), and the totality of circumstances surrounding the conduct complained of, including but not limited to the context of that conduct, its severity, its frequency, and whether it was physically threatening, humiliating, or simply offensive in nature.

4. Facts will be considered on the basis of what is reasonable to persons of ordinary sensitivity and not on the particular sensitivity or reaction of an individual. If additional investigation is requested, no decision regarding charges will be made until the investigation is complete.

5. The Dean’s final determination of action will be provided to the complainant(s) and respondent(s) within ten (10) business days if either the complainant(s) and/or respondent(s) submit comments.

If the complainant(s) and/or respondent(s) disagree with the final determination of action, they may request and receive a hearing.

To the extent authorized by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (https://www2.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa) (FERPA), the Dean will provide both parties, the complainant(s) and respondent(s), with a final determination of action.

Sec. 803. Disposition of Charges

The complainant(s) and respondent(s) must choose one of two decision-making approaches: (1) an administrative decision made by Student Conduct and Community Standards; or (2) a formal hearing.

1. Administrative Decision (Waiver)

   a. When the respondent(s) elect(s) not to dispute the facts upon which the charges are based and agree to the sanctions Student Conduct and Community Standards assesses, the student may execute a written waiver of the hearing procedures, yet retain the right to appeal the decision of Student Conduct and Community Standards only on the issue of the sanction.

   b. The complainant may agree and elect not to dispute the facts upon which the charges are based, and agree to the sanctions Student Conduct and Community Standards assesses.

2. Formal Hearing

   a. Complainant(s) may request a hearing:
      i. if they disagree with the respondent(s) choice to complete a written waiver of the hearing procedures;
      ii. if the complainant(s) disagree with the sanctions in the waiver, the hearing will be to determine sanctions only; or
      iii. the complainant(s) always retain(s) the right to request and receive a hearing.

   b. The respondent(s) may dispute the facts upon which the charges are based and elect the formal hearing as the decision-making approach, or refuse to execute a written waiver of a hearing.

   c. When a hearing is requested, the charges shall be heard and determined by a fair and impartial Hearing Officer. A Hearing Officer will be chosen in accordance with the procedures of the institution.

Sec. 804. Burden of Proof

EOS will determine if the student is responsible for violating the University’s Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct, HOP 9.24, and the Dean shall find the student responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct if the greater weight of the credible evidence, or more likely than not the violation occurred, supports the alleged violation(s).

Sec. 805. Interim Discipline

1. During the investigation of an alleged violation pursuant to Section 801, EOS may recommend the Dean take interim disciplinary action. The Dean may take interim disciplinary action as is appropriate to the circumstances when such action is in the best interest of the institution, pending a disposition of the allegations against a student. This includes, but is not limited to an immediate suspension and bar from the campus when it reasonably appears from the circumstances the continued presence of the student poses a potential risk that harassment will continue to harm the complaining student, other members of the University community, or any visitor. The Dean may take such actions pending a disposition of the sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, or sexual assault case, and/or exhaustion of appellate rights.

When interim disciplinary action has been taken, a disposition of the charges against the student will be held under the procedures specified in Section 803, et seq. A decision pursuant to Section 803 following interim disciplinary action will generally be held within ten (10) business days after the interim disciplinary action was taken; however, at the discretion of the Dean, the 10 business day period may be extended for a reasonable period.

Sec. 806. Hearing Procedures
In a hearing of the disciplinary charges, both the complainant(s) and the respondent(s) have the right to be present throughout the hearing. Each may have an advisor(s), and both may submit questions to witnesses.

Appeal

Sec. 807. Right to Appeal
1. Both the complainant(s) and respondent(s) may appeal a disciplinary sanction(s) assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards in accordance with Section 803.
2. The complainant(s), respondent(s), and/or Student Conduct and Community Standards may appeal the decision of the Hearing Officer.

Sec. 808. Appeal of Sanction Assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards
1. A written appeal of the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards must state the specific reasons for the appeal and any argument to the Vice President with copies provided to the non-appealing parties and to Student Conduct and Community Standards. The appeal must be stamped as received by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs no later than fourteen (14) business days after both the appealing and non-appealing parties have been notified of the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards. If the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards is sent by regular mail, the date the notice or decision is mailed initiates the fourteen (14) business day period for the appeal. Student Conduct and Community Standards and the non-appealing party should be notified by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs that an appeal has been received. Student Conduct and Community Standards and the non-appealing party may submit a response to the appeal which must be received by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs no later than five (5) business days after receipt of the appeal with a copy to the other party.
2. An appeal of the sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards will be reviewed solely on the basis of the written arguments of the appealing party, non-appealing party, and Student Conduct and Community Standards.
3. The action of the Vice President shall be communicated in writing to the appealing and non-appealing parties within thirty (30) business days after the appeal and related documents have been received.
4. The decision of the Vice President is final.

Sec. 810. Effect of Appeal Upon Disciplinary Action
1. An appeal of the decision of the Hearing Officer or of a sanction assessed by Student Conduct and Community Standards shall suspend the imposition of the prescribed disciplinary action pending final disposition of the appeal.
2. If upon final disposition of any case in which the action has been suspended during appeal, the Vice President, whose decision becomes final, finds the original action can no longer be imposed because of passage of time, may specify a new period of time for which the original action will be imposed, or in any case where imposition of the original action will no longer be effective because of a change in the status of the student(s) involved, the Vice President shall prescribe a substitute disciplinary action deemed appropriate to the conduct involved.

Sec. 811. Communication of Sanctions
The complainant(s), respondent(s), and Student Conduct and Community Standards will be notified, in writing, about the outcome of both the complaint and the appeal.

Sec. 809. Appeal of Decision of Hearing Officer
1. A written appeal of the decision of the Hearing Officer must state the specific reasons for the appeal and any argument to the Vice President with a copy to the non-appealing parties. The appeal must be stamped as received by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs no later than fourteen (14) business days after the appealing party has been notified of the decision of the Hearing Officer. If the notice of the decision of the Hearing Officer is sent by regular mail, the date the notice or decision is mailed initiates the fourteen (14) business day period for the appeal. The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs shall notify the non-appealing parties that an appeal has been received and they may submit a response to the appeal that must be received by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs no later than five (5) business days after receipt of the appeal with a copy to the other parties. The appeal of the decision of the Hearing Officer will be reviewed solely on the basis of the record from the hearing.
2. Student Conduct and Community Standards will submit the record from the hearing to the Vice President as soon as it is available to their office.
3. The action of the Vice President shall be communicated in writing to the appealing and non-appealing parties within thirty (30) business days after the appeal and related documents have been received.
4. The Vice President may approve, reject, or modify the decision in question, or may require the original hearing be reopened for the presentation of additional evidence and reconsideration of the decisions.
5. The decision of the Vice President is final.
