The College of Liberal and Fine Arts offers the following graduate degrees and certificates:

Department of Anthropology
- Master of Arts in Anthropology
- Doctor of Philosophy in Anthropology

Department of Communication
- Master of Arts in Communication

Department of English
- Master of Arts in English
- Doctor of Philosophy in English
- Graduate Certificate in Creative Writing
- Graduate Certificate in Rhetoric and Composition

Department of History
- Master of Arts in History

Department of Modern Languages and Literatures
- Master of Arts in Spanish
- Graduate Certificate in Linguistics
- Graduate Certificate in Translation and Interpreting Studies

Department of Philosophy and Classics
- Master of Arts in Philosophy

Department of Political Science and Geography
- Master of Arts in Geography and Environmental Sustainability
- Master of Arts in Global Affairs
- Master of Arts in Political Science

Interdisciplinary School for Engagement in Humanities and Social Sciences
- Graduate Certificate in Latin American Studies

School of Art
- Master of Fine Arts in Art
- Master of Arts in Art History

School of Music
- Master of Music
- Graduate Certificate in Instrumental Performance
- Graduate Certificate in Music Pedagogy
- Graduate Certificate in Music Theory Pedagogy

For more information, please visit the respective department or school websites.