

MANDATORY SEMESTER FEES AND CHARGES

First Semester Only

Students are assessed the following one-time charges in their first semester at UTSA.

General Property Deposit

Every student must make a general property deposit of $10 at the time of initial registration to protect the University from losses such as property loss, damage, or breakage; violation of rules in any University library or laboratory; failure to return keys furnished by the University; or damage to or loss of any other University property.

The deposit, less outstanding charges, is refunded upon request only when the student officially withdraws from school or graduates. When the property deposit refund is requested, the student has the option to elect that the property deposit refund be used to pay the first year's dues in the UTSA Alumni Association. The form for requesting a refund or that the deposit be used for association dues is available at the Office of Fiscal Services. A general property deposit that remains without call for refund for a period of four years from the date of last attendance at UTSA shall be forfeited, and the deposit shall become operative to the permanent use and purpose of student scholarships.

Orientation Charge

An orientation charge of up to $160 (charge includes a prepayment requirement) is assessed to all new undergraduate students when they are admitted to UTSA to defray the cost of making improvements to the orientation experience, to include more strategic marketing and communication, enhance online orientation, increase the number of orientation leaders and enhance programs for special populations. Orientation programs provide information about UTSA's academic requirements, campus services and resources, and include academic advising and course registration. New student orientation is mandatory for all undergraduate students and preregistration is required for these programs. Further information is available from Orientation and Family Programs (<http://www.utsa.edu/orientation/>).

Tuition and Mandatory Fees

The following charges are assessed to all students each semester whether or not the student uses or takes full advantage of the underlying service provided by the fee.

Tuition

Pursuant to Subchapter B, Chapter 54, Texas Education Code, each student who registers at UTSA is required to pay tuition (see "Exemption from Tuition, Fees, and Charges (<http://catalog.utsa.edu/policies/tuitionfees/paymentrefundpolicies/exemption/>)") according to the number of semester credit hours for which registration is completed and according to his or her residence classification (see the Fiscal Services website (<http://utsa.edu/fiscalservices/>)).
